WHEREAS, on or about February 24, 2023, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Substitute Assets (the “Substitute Assets Order”) (D.E. 264), which ordered the forfeiture to the United States of all right, title and interest of EDWARD SHIN (the “Defendant”) in the following property:

- i. $25,000 in United States currency personally posted by the Defendant in this criminal matter on or about May 30, 2019 and currently on deposit with the Clerk of the Court (receipt numbers 465401236792 and 465401236793)

(the “Substitute Asset”);

WHEREAS, the Substitute Assets Order directed the United States to publish, for at least thirty (30) consecutive days, notice of the Substitute Assets Order, notice of the United States’ intent to dispose of the Substitute Asset, and the requirement that any person asserting a legal interest in the Substitute Asset must file a petition with the Court in accordance with the requirements of Title 21, United States Code, Sections 853(n)(2) and (3). Pursuant to Section 853(n), the United States could, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Substitute Asset and as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified;

WHEREAS, the provisions of Title 21, United State Code, Section 853(n)(1), Rule 32.2(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and Rules G(4)(a)(iv)(C) and G(5)(a)(ii) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, require publication of a notice of forfeiture and of the Government's intent to dispose of the Substitute Asset before the United States can have clear title to the Substitute Asset;

WHEREAS, the Notice of Forfeiture and the intent of the United States to dispose of the Substitute Asset was posted on an official government internet site (www.forfeiture.gov) beginning on June 24, 2023, for thirty (30) consecutive days, through July 23, 2023, pursuant to Rule G(4)(a)(iv)(C) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty and Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions and proof of such publication was filed with the Clerk of the Court on April 30, 2024 (D.E. 269);

WHEREAS, on or about August 23, 2023, the Government sent direct notice of the Substitute Assets Order via United States Postal Service certified mail to:

Sophie Hahn ("Han")
Ambler, PA 19002

WHEREAS, on or about August 23, 2023, the Government sent direct notice of the Substitute Assets Order via electronic mail to:

Robert Basil
The Basil Law Group, PC
robertjbasil@rjbasil.com

(together with Han, the "Noticed Parties").

WHEREAS, thirty (30) days have expired since final publication of the Notice of Forfeiture and receipt of notice by the Noticed Parties, and no petitions or claims to contest the forfeiture of the Substitute Asset have been filed;

WHEREAS, the Defendant and the Noticed Parties are the only individuals and/or entities known by the Government to have a potential interest in the Substitute Asset; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(7), the United States shall have clear title to any forfeited property if no petitions for a hearing to contest the forfeiture have been filed within thirty (30) days of final publication of notice of forfeiture as set forth in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(2);

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. All right, title and interest in the Substitute Asset is hereby forfeited and vested in the United States of America, and shall be disposed of according to law.
2. Pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(7), the United States of America shall and is hereby deemed to have clear title to the Substitute Asset.
3. The United States Marshals Service (or its designee) shall take possession of the Substitute Asset and dispose of the same according to law, in accordance with Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(h).

Dated: New York, New York
May 1, 2024
